
Cooperation

The Charles University Digitization Centre, or rather the Central Library of Charles University, of which the Digitization Centre is a part, participates in many national activities in the field of document digitization. Within the framework of various agendas, it cooperates with the National Library of the Czech Republic, the Library of the Czech Academy of Sciences, and other institutions.

regarding the planned, ongoing, and completed digitization of specific documents. Thanks to this nationwide initiative, duplicate digitization of documents can be prevented.

Document Replication

The Charles University Digitization Centre currently has a "replication agreement" with the National Library of the Czech Republic, Moravian Library, and the Library of the Czech Academy of Sciences. Thanks to these agreements, it is possible to perform so-called replication (in effect, creating a copy of digitized document). Replication is performed when a document selected for digitization has already been digitized by another institution in Czechia (in this case, the National Library of the Czech Republic, Moravian Library, and the Library of the Czech Academy of Sciences). If the standards for image data and any metadata description of the digitized document meet the requirements and it is the same document (edition, series, etc.) that the one selected for the digitization that is or was demonstrably owned by Charles University, it is possible to replicate the digitized document directly, without the need for new digitization, and make it available in the Charles University Digital Library Kramerius. This process ensures cost and time savings without compromising the quality of the electronic version of the document.

Czech Digital Library

<https://ceskadigitalniknihovna.cz>

The contents of the University Digital Library Kramerius - that is, individual digitized documents - are compiled into the Czech Digital Library. This repository also collects information on other digitized documents from digital libraries in the Czechia, including the largest digital libraries of the National Library of the Czech Republic, Moravian Library, the Library of the Czech Academy of Sciences, and other libraries. Readers thus have the opportunity to search through a large number of digitized documents across the Czechia via a single web portal.

Out-of-Commerce Works

<https://dnnt.cz>

Charles University collaborates with the Out-of-commerce Works service, which provides access to digitized texts of books, journals, and newspapers published in the Czechia that are still protected by copyright law but are no longer available on the book market. Charles University allows its students and employees to access such documents in various Czech digital libraries (or in the Czech Digital Library) by logging in via their university account. Additionally, the University Digital Library Kramerius provides several hundred Out-of-commerce titles for reading to users who have logged in.
